Carl – We have finally settled into our new office space and would like to find some time the week of September 15th to talk about your concerns. What is your availability that week?

OK, thank you. I'm kind of swamped at the moment as well. Initially I'm thinking at least late next week, or more helpfully, the week of September 15-19? I will check on some more specifics.

Carl – we can set up an initial meeting with you to discuss your concerns. We are in the process of moving our offices but would like to set up a conference call over the next few weeks. Please provide me with a few dates and times that would work best for you and we will try and set it up. Thanks.
